1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Article 26 (1) of Brunelcare's Articles of Association states that:

'The directors may delegate any of their powers or functions to a committee of two or more directors but the terms of any delegation must be set out in Terms of Reference approved by the Board and included as a Schedule to its Standing Orders.'

1.2 In accordance with Article 26(1) the Board of Directors has established a committee to be known as the Remuneration, Nomination and Workforce Committee (referred to throughout this document as 'the Committee'). The Terms of Reference and operating arrangements set by the Board in respect of this committee are provided below.

2. PURPOSE

2.1 The purpose of the Committee is to:

- 2.1.1 provide assurance to the Board in relation to the Charity's arrangements for the remuneration and terms of service, including contractual arrangements, for all staff working for Brunelcare;
- 2.1.2 provide advice to the Board on the remuneration and terms of service for Board Members, the Chief Executive and members of the Senior Leadership Team;
- 2.1.3 Provide assurance on the development and delivery of a workforce and organisational development strategy that supports the Charity's strategy and ensures an appropriate workforce culture is in place.
- 2.1.4 regularly review the composition of the Board;
- 2.1.5 identify and nominate for the approval of the Board, candidates to fill board vacancies (including membership of committees) as and when they arise; and
- 2.1.6 ensure arrangements in relation to remuneration and nomination are effective and comply with relevant Codes of Governance;

- 2.1.7 perform certain, specific functions as delegated by the Board and listed in section 3 of these Terms of Reference.

3. DELEGATED RESPONSIBILITIES AND AUTHORITY

3.1 Remuneration

The Committee shall:

- 3.1.1 have responsibility for setting the Remuneration Policy for the Board and the Senior Leadership Team, including pension rights and any compensation payments. The Board itself or, where required by the Articles of Association, the members of the Charity should determine the remuneration of the Board (Trustees) within the limits set in the Articles of Association. No director or senior manager shall be involved in any decisions as to their own remuneration; independent advice will be sought by the Committee.
- 3.1.2 consider and recommend the remuneration of the Chief Executive to the Board for approval. Have responsibility for setting the Remuneration Policy for the Senior Leadership Team, including pension rights and any compensation payments. It shall also, recommend and monitor the level and structure of remuneration for other senior managers;
- 3.1.3 in determining such policies, take into account all factors which it deems necessary including relevant legal and regulatory requirements, the provisions and recommendations of the Charity Code of Governance and associated guidance. The objective of such policies shall be to attract, retain and motivate executive management of the quality required to run the Charity successfully without paying more than is necessary. The remuneration policies should have regard to the risk appetite of the Charity and alignment to its long term strategic goals;
- 3.1.4 when setting the remuneration policy for directors and the Senior Leadership Team, review and have regard to pay and employment conditions across the Charity, and market factors especially when determining annual salary increases;
- 3.1.5 Propose and recommend any cost of living and salary increase recommendations for staff (to the Board), subject to affordability.
- 3.1.5 review the on-going appropriateness and relevance of the remuneration policies;
- 3.1.6 within the terms of the agreed policy and in consultation with the chair and/or chief executive, as appropriate, determine the total individual remuneration package of each member of the Senior Leadership Team, and other designated senior managers including bonuses and incentive payments;

- 3.1.7 obtain reliable, up-to-date information about remuneration in other charities and housing associations of comparable scale and complexity. To help it fulfil its obligations the Committee shall have full authority to appoint remuneration consultants and to commission or purchase any reports, surveys or information which it deems necessary at the expense of the Charity but within any budgetary restraints imposed by the board;
- 3.1.8 be exclusively responsible for establishing the selection criteria, selecting, appointing and setting the terms of reference for any remuneration consultants who advise the committee;
- 3.1.9 approve the design of, and determine targets for, any performance-related pay schemes operated by the Charity and approve the total annual payments made under such schemes;
- 3.1.10 determine the policy for, and scope of, pension arrangements for members other designated senior managers;
- 3.1.11 ensure that contractual terms on termination, and any payments made, are fair to the individual, and the Charity, that failure is not rewarded and that the duty to mitigate loss is fully recognised;
- 3.1.12 oversee any major changes in employee benefits structures or terms and conditions throughout the Charity;
- 3.1.13 agree the policy for authorising claims for expenses from directors and members of the Senior Leadership Team;
- 3.1.14 provide assurance to the Board that the Charity has an effective People Strategy in place and that its overall approaches to people management supports the delivery of the Charity's corporate aims;
- 3.1.15 advise the Board on the Chair and Chief Executive Officer's appraisal schemes and ensure that regular reviews are undertaken (at least annually);
- 3.1.16 review, at least annually, the Chief Executive Officer's performance and remuneration and make recommendations to the Board; and
- 3.1.17 Ensure that at least annually, that the Chief Executive, reviews the objectives, performance and remuneration of members of the Senior Leadership Team
- 3.1.18 Review and recommend any significant changes to the organisation's pension, redundancy and ex-gratia payment arrangements for the company and recommend to the Board any discretionary payments to the pension scheme for the Chief Executive or Senior Leadership Team in line with the policies of the organisation.
- 3.1.19 Review and approve any changes to the structure of the Senior Leadership Team including the establishment of new roles, remuneration packages and severance packages associated with the changes.

3.2 Nominations

The Committee shall:

- 3.2.1 regularly review the structure, size and composition (including the skills, knowledge, experience and diversity) of the Board and make recommendations to the board with regard to any changes;
- 3.2.2 oversee the recruitment of the Board Members and the Chief Executive, and approve their appointment, employment package and any terms
- 3.2.3 give full consideration to succession planning for directors, the Senior Leadership Team in the course of its work, taking into account the challenges and opportunities facing the Charity, and the skills and expertise needed in the future;
- 3.2.4 keep under review the leadership needs of the organisation with a view to ensuring the continued ability of the Charity to meet its Objects and long term vision;
